Insolvency, Restructuring and Investigation

Financial difficulties, closing down of a business and financial investigations require a deep understanding of the regulatory framework and careful planning of each step to take.

FINOVA assists in several areas like orderly winding down and corporate closure, voluntary and compulsory liquidation, receivership, judicial management, debt or financial restructuring, independent financial review, forensic accounting, creditors representation and asset sales process.

WHY FINOVA?

The Challenge

In a constantly changing world that inevitably affects the ease of doing businesses in the context of legal policies, regulations, procedures and other requirements, it may be time-consuming and challenging to keep up with the ever-changing dynamic business landscape. However, there are requisites that businesses must comply with almost immediate effect, and this can pose to be a struggle especially when owners and managers are not aware or too tied-up with day-to-day operations to review certain changes.

The Solutions

It is thus vital to engage qualified and experienced professionals who can provide you with comprehensive end-to-end services, close follow-through on your business needs, act as your sounding board and one that is able to grow with your business by having a clear understanding of your company's necessities and demands and is able to guide you through all aspects of business requirements.

The Result

By engaging FINOVA, our clients will be kept updated on the constantly revolving regulatory environment and requirements with regard to doing business. Beyond providing one-off services to our clients, FINOVA focuses on building long-term relationships with our clients, addressing all their needs or changing needs and tailoring the best fit solutions for them to enhance efficiency and to allow business owners to devote their time and energy to focus on the key performance drivers of the business.
